INTERNATIONAL PARTNERING INSTITUTE

2020 PARTNERING CHAMPION AWARD

PURPOSE

The Partnering Champion Award is the highest honor presented by the International Partnering Institute (IPI). The award recognizes an organization that embraces and models the IPI mission to develop high trust relationships and organizational cultures.

BACKGROUND

IPI is a 501(c) 3 non-profit charitable organization. IPI conducts research to capture partnering concepts and techniques that develop high trust relationships and organizational cultures for the delivery of construction projects, and provides education and certification in those concepts and techniques. IPI is funded by revenue generated from member contributions, seminars and educational resources.

IPI's Partnering Champion Award recognizes an organization who distinguishes themselves with consistent, long-term commitment to IPI's best practices for an integrated partnering program and the collaborative process. Winning organizations demonstrate commitment to the elements of partnering, achieve excellent results and deliver an outstanding project.

2019 ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- One application per submittal
- Candidates may be nominated by an Owner, Designer, Contractor Construction Manager, or Facilitator

PARTNERING DEFINITION

Collaborative Partnering is defined as “a structured process of collaborative teamwork to achieve measurable results through agreements and productive working relationships.”

BENEFITS

In addition to being honored at the IPI Annual Awards Celebration, winners will:

- Be recognized as a leader in Partnering excellence
- Have the opportunity to network with peers in the industry committed to Partnering excellence
- Know they have contributed to continuous improvement of Partnering as a business process

AWARD PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Award Process

The International Partnering Institute Partnering Champion Award process is led by a committee of volunteers who role model excellence in the industry. They oversee the award process which includes the establishment of a high standard of Partnering performance.

Nominations must include evidence of an internal culture change and a profound impact on changing the cultures of external organizations. Additional criteria include the methodology used for the application of IPI's best practices and the principals of partnering; demonstrated results; efficiencies obtained and problems overcome; and lessons learned. A multi-year track record of successful application of an integrated partnering program is expected. This prestigious award will be presented only in those years that a deserving organization is nominated.

How Winners are selected:

Applicants are expected to complete the standard application form on pages 5-6. Responses shall answer the questions asked and shall be presented in a format that includes a total of 5 pages, maximum.

Attachments, photos and/or exhibits that demonstrate the organizations implementation and/or commitment to a partnering culture change process are unlimited and not counted towards the 5 page write-up.

Judges will look carefully at the responses given against the criteria established and not the sophistication of the package submitted. The judges will then determine which applicant will be recognized. This prestigious award will be presented only in those years that a deserving organization is nominated.

APPLICATION TIPS

- Pictures are great! Keep in mind the pictures must be supported by the write-up you provide.
- Start your preparation early, complete it, then go back, and give it a review to brush it up.
- Have your partners look over the materials you prepare for additional comment or insights.
- Make sure you get your application in by the deadline.
- A panel of judges who may have no previous exposure to your organization will review and evaluate your write-up. The judging panel for the Partnering Champion Award is made up of experienced and qualified professionals. They can only evaluate what you present.
